

Dear Parent(s)/Guardian(s),

In accordance with the Ministry of Education’s enhanced health and safety measures, all school board are required to implement daily on-site confirmation of screening prior to/upon arrival at school for at least two weeks following the winter break.

To satisfy this requirement, please sign and return this form each day indicated below. This confirms your child has taken and passed the self-screening questions and is eligible to be at school that day. If you have more than one child, please sign and return a form for each child.

Due to the fluid nature of the pandemic, the self-screening tool changes regularly and we encourage all families to refer to the online version that can be found on the Ministry of Education’s website: COVID-19 School and Childcare Self Screening.
